AAA & DreamWorks Animation's TURBO

AAA has teamed up with DreamWorks Animations SKG, Inc.'s (Nasdaq: DWA) 3D racing comedy, TURBO, for a special public service announcement to promote the importance of safe driving.

The collaborative PSA complements a TURBO film integration, which features both the AAA IndyCar and AAA tow truck in DreamWorks Animation's racing snail, Turbo, star together in the safe driving PSA, which premiered during the Auto Club 400 race earlier this year and will continue to run on various stations as well as at select sport venues.

Ground Transportation Professionals Since 1939

Unique in the industry as a family owned and operated business since 1939, Mears is recognized as one of the largest transportation companies in the country. Our reputation for excellence is built upon a tradition of flexibility, reliability, performance and an unmatched level of personal service. With a fleet of more than 1000 vehicles, we have the versatility and rapid response capability to deliver peace of mind in an arena where fast-changing travel needs are a way of life.

Flexible, Reliable Services for any Requirement

With top quality personnel, first class equipment and a full range of services, Mears is ready to accommodate any size group on virtually any itinerary. Our vehicles are maintained to the highest standards in the industry and are available 24-hours a day, seven days a week. Since travel needs often change, Mears deploys trained staff and vehicles to key locations to cater to individuals and groups:

At the Airport: Mears is the primary transportation concessionaire. So on any given day, there are 50 to 100 professional staff throughout the Orlando International Airport making sure that individuals and groups are transported quickly, safely, and efficiently.

At the Hotel: Mears is the contracted transportation company. You will find our vehicles on-site, on-demand at most Orlando convention hotels. You'll also find a guest services or concierge desk to help with your personal needs.

At the Attraction: Mears is the contracted transportation provider for the Walt Disney World® Resort, SeaWorld Adventure Park® and Universal Orlando®. Designated pick-up areas for Mears vehicles or Mears "Starters" help passengers, after a long fun-filled day, to return back to your hotel, the airport or various other destinations.

At the Cruise: Most Port Canaveral cruise lines have contracted with Mears to provide transportation for their guests to and from their cruise ships.
